

The Benefits of Fair Scheduling for Workers and Businesses

Working Smarter, Safer, and Stronger

The U.S. Department of Labor is proud to announce the release of a new report, The Benefits of Fair Scheduling for Workers and Businesses, which highlights the importance of fair scheduling practices for workers and businesses alike. The report is part of the Department's ongoing efforts to promote fair labor practices and improve the lives of workers.

The report outlines the benefits of fair scheduling for workers, including improved work-life balance, reduced stress, and increased productivity. It also highlights the benefits for businesses, such as reduced turnover, improved morale, and increased efficiency. The report is a valuable resource for employers and workers alike, providing practical advice on how to implement fair scheduling practices in the workplace.
